Jesus

I speak today with such love in my heart. There are those among you who suffer from financial need. You do not have enough money to sustain your family. Perhaps you do not have what you need to buy food or to pay for your shelter needs. My friends, you are not forgotten. Heaven will not abandon you. I see your distress and recognize your need. I want to ask you to look at your situation fearlessly. Ask yourself if you are in real danger of going without food. Are you in real danger of losing your place of shelter? Consider these two things as your basic needs. I am asking that you begin to think of your time on Earth differently. Consider exactly what your body needs to continue in service to me. Some of my children on Earth have been blessed with great abundance. In some cases, this great abundance has created a craving for more which is undermining Heaven's goals for the person. Additionally, this craving for more has become a distraction, diverting some of God's children from the task of growing in holiness. My beloved ones, if this describes you, if you routinely have enough food to eat and a safe place to rest, yet you continue to worry about money, then you must change your standard immediately. What will you do when it comes time to leave all of this? Will you object when Jesus does not supply you with these extra things in Heaven? You may not want to come to Heaven because there is no excess of material goods here. This is silly, of course, and I am being playful with you but please try to understand my point. Excessive material goods are a distraction. If you have financial needs that can be rectified by cutting back on your standard of living, do so at once. I will help you and I promise you this today, because this is very important for you and for your family. I am asking all to reconsider their needs and use less when possible.

For those who cannot sustain basic food and shelter needs, I have something else to say. You are loved. You should ask me to send help and I will begin to do so at once. My beloved children, I did not create you to go hungry. I did not create you to sleep in circumstances that prevent safety. I want you to know that during my time on Earth, I often experienced hunger. I very often did not have a place to rest my head. Indeed, I was born into poverty and I understand poverty of the physical type. I want you to know something today. Financial poverty and physical need do not equal spiritual poverty, meaning spiritual need. I am saying you can be far wealthier than any king or queen, even if you are the poorest of the poor. Perhaps you are hungry more than you are fed. Perhaps you have no home. My beloved child, you will have a beautiful home here in Heaven, and in it you will entertain your loved ones with great bounty. You will have enough of everything in Heaven and you will be treated as a royal personage by me, Jesus. Your time of poverty on Earth prepares you for a time of great wealth in Heaven. You must accept your circumstances in peace, even while you try to change these circumstances. I will not accept that you do not want to work to support yourself or your family. That is not an acceptable reason to suffer need. I want you to try to sustain yourself and those for whom you are responsible. But, if through no fault of your own you suffer poverty, I assure you today that if you accept this in peace I will reward you beyond your furthest imaginings. In places where people are poor, I am there with my greatest graces. Dear beloved ones, believe me today when I tell you that people who come to Heaven do not regret anything they suffered on Earth. Rest in this thought. You will not regret your sufferings. You will only regret the times you failed to love. Ask me for help and I will help you. Be at peace. You have not been abandoned.

St. Augustine

Dear brothers and sisters, we in Heaven remember being on Earth. We remember having great wants and suffering from poverty. Some of God's saints were wealthy on Earth, of course, but many were not. The time in which you live is a time of great abundance for some. It would make God happy if this abundance could be shared so few experienced hunger which resulted in disease and death. There will always be poor people, it is true, but this fact does not excuse anyone from failing to assist them. If you are wealthy, you may say, "What can I do?" I will answer you today. Give. Give often and give more. Work for others with your power and influence. Spread holy principles of responsible use of material and financial wealth. Also, deprive yourself of something. Sacrifice. Perhaps you are in a situation where you were accustomed to a high standard of living and now you have had to reduce your standard. Praise God for this. Rejoice, because in this circumstance you will learn many things. You will learn to trust God. You will learn to have compassion for others. You will learn that not everything has to do with bodily comfort. In looking back at my time of service on Earth, I am aware that the time of greatest growth for me was the time when I suffered. This is basic spirituality, of course, in that it is hard to become holy if you never deny yourself. In order to become holy you must take up your cross. This cross can come in many forms, and the best response to the cross is always to pick it up and walk with it. Move. Do not lament that the cross has been placed on your doorstep. Accept the cross as coming from Heaven and, putting one foot in front of the other, climb the mountain toward Jesus. There are always people who suffer more than you and there will always be those who suffer less. Do not let poverty make you bitter. To do so would be to reject God's generous offer of holiness. During this time, many are suffering from financial difficulties. Is Heaven any less present? This is the same as in many periods of history. Be at peace in all circumstances and you will find that God gives you what you need to serve him in each day. If you are hungry, offer this to God, even while asking him to provide you with more food. God will make you a saint quickly in these circumstances and you will experience spiritual richness. If you have enough and you are not hungry, deny yourself food periodically. Simply do not eat for a day and offer your hunger to God so he can take your little sacrifice and obtain graces with which to feed others. Heaven will help you to understand God's will in either situation, either poverty or affluence.

St. Augustine

In a world where many have rejected God, it is necessary for many to learn about trust. Reliance on God liberates people. God can teach this lesson by withdrawing financial security. If you have lost your financial security and you are fearful, talk to God. Tell him your fears. Tell him about your obligations, particularly those you find you cannot meet. God will help you. There is no shame in having less money. Jesus himself seldom had money. Did people look down on him? Yes, they did. Did people have to take care of him? Yes, they did, and they are being eternally rewarded for doing so. If others have to help you, accept this with grace. Perhaps this is painful for you. Perhaps you find it humiliating. I understand. I am with you in this humiliation. Humiliation brings humility, though, and while I know the humiliation is difficult, the humility is heavenly and makes you open to God's love in a way that delights Heaven. If others have to care for you, sharing their food, shelter, time, or wealth with you, accept this in peace. You may not have anything with which to reward them, but God has all of infinity to bless them for their kindness to you. Indeed, your situation may be the best opportunity these people have to obtain holiness. Here is a snare. Do not become angry at the people who help you, even if they give with superiority. If your circumstances make them feel superior, they are in greater trouble than you and they have their own lessons to learn. You must pray for them and concentrate on the lessons God is teaching you today. Accept the help of others as though it were directly from the hand of God. You are in financial trouble. You pray. God sends help. Be grateful to him and rejoice. Do not criticize the manner in which God sends the help. That is like being on a road, walking, feeling certain you cannot continue as you are too tired. You have miles to go. A car comes along and offers you transport. You get into the car and begin to criticize the color of the seats. Would you not shake your head at such foolishness? Would you laugh at such ridiculousness? Would you feel sad for the person who offered help, only to be mocked and ridiculed by ingratitude? Be loving. Look with favor on those whom God sends to assist you.

St. Augustine

Dear friends, we in Heaven see your needs. We hear your prayers. Come to God with everything. Be at peace in everything. Be like trusting children who know that their father will provide for them when the time is right. You will not regret trusting God. Trusting the Father becomes a habit and it will serve you well in every area of your life. Perhaps you have enough money and you have always had enough money. You, even more than a poverty-stricken person, must learn trust, because there is temptation when you are wealthy to rely on your wealth to protect you. Such folly. Such perilous folly. Truly, this is living in a house with no foundation. All may be well when it is sunny, but in life storms must be expected, as they come with regularity. An abundance of material wealth makes it even more imperative that you learn to rely only on God. Ask me for help with this and I will teach you everything I know about trusting God.

If you fear for the financial protection of your family, ask me to intercede for you. Jesus has the greatest tenderness for the poor because he himself was poor. Jesus understands that you worry about providing for your children and taking care of each other. Jesus accepts that this desire to provide for your loved ones is a holy inspiration which comes from him. He will reward this by giving you all possible assistance. Do not think you are working outside of God's will if you strive to protect your family financially.

Also, do not be afraid that God will punish you if you are wealthy. God himself has allowed you to be wealthy, but God did not allow your wealth simply for your personal comfort. God allowed wealth for you so you could steward this wealth in such a way that he could assist others through you. You will want to allow God to do this with freedom, which means you need to be praying for God's direction at all times.

Be at peace in all circumstances. God loves his children and you will not be abandoned. We, the saints in Heaven, will assist you to find the right answers to all of your financial difficulties. There will come a day when you finish your life and all of these problems will cease. On that day, I, Augustine, will be waiting for you so I can congratulate you on the holy way in which you faced your financial circumstances.

Blessed Mother

My dear child, I am with you. There is a holy way to conduct yourself in your situation. If you pray, you will know which is the holy way that leads to my son. I will protect you from choosing an unholy way which leads away from my son. You see, my child, in everything you face there is an opportunity for holiness. Heaven can use your day to move our goals forward if you are the poorest of the poor or the richest of the rich. All we need is your “yes” to Jesus. Say “yes” to my son. Accept any crosses you have. We will help you provide for your family. We will help you to have peace in any suffering. You will not be abandoned. I am a mother and I had many worries because of our lack of means. Many people assisted my little family. My gratitude for the generosity of others is still with me and God’s gratitude for their generosity is still with them. Do you see? If you help others you will be rewarded for eternity. If you accept the help of others with dignity, you will become holy and set an example of dignified suffering. Beloved ones, I promise that you will have what you need to become holy. Do not think Heaven abandons you with financial problems. Heaven helps in these matters as much as Heaven helps in spiritual matters because we understand that all that happens in your life shapes your spirituality. Walk each day with Heaven and you will see our help. I am your mother and I will not abandon you to these troubles. I will give you peace in all of your troubles.

The Five Spiritual Practices

As Apostles of the Returning King, we will adopt the following spiritual practices, as best we can:

1. Daily Allegiance Prayer and Vocation Prayer, plus a brief prayer for the Holy Father
2. Eucharistic Adoration, one hour per week
3. Prayer Group Participation, monthly, at which we pray the Luminous Mysteries of the Holy Rosary and read the monthly message
4. Monthly Confession
5. Further, we will follow the example of Jesus Christ as set out in the Holy Scripture, treating all others with his patience and kindness

Three Charisms of the Apostolate of the Returning King

- ✠ Compassionate Listening
- ✠ Learning and Teaching the Catechism
- ✠ Promoting Unity in the Church

The Allegiance Prayer

Dear God in Heaven, I pledge my allegiance to you. I give you my life, my work and my heart. In turn, give me the grace of obeying your every direction to the fullest possible extent. Amen

The Vocation Prayer

Oh Mary, mother of Jesus and Queen of the Church, I ask you to bless me with fidelity to my vocation. Assist me in seeing that my service, however humble and hidden, is important to the universal Church. Strengthen me in times of trial and watch over my family and loved ones. Help me, beloved Mother, to remain faithful to Jesus Christ, your Son, the Returning King. Amen.

Promise to Lay Apostles

May 12, 2005

Jesus

Your message to souls remains constant. Welcome each soul to the rescue mission. You may assure each lay apostle that just as they concern themselves with my interests, I will concern myself with theirs. They will be placed in my Sacred Heart and I will defend and protect them. I will also pursue complete conversion of each of their loved ones. So you see, the souls who serve in this rescue mission as my beloved lay apostles will know peace. The world cannot make this promise as only Heaven can bestow peace on a soul. This is truly Heaven's mission and I call every one of Heaven's children to assist me. You will be well rewarded, my dear ones.
