God the Father

Dear children of the world, I will never leave you. Please consider me the very best of fathers. Does a loving father know when his child's heart is grieving? Yes. He does. If your heart is grieving, you must come to me. I will heal your hurts and restore your heart to you. I will give you courage and strength so that you can proceed with your earthly journey. I am asking you today, though, to proceed differently. Ask me to be united to you. Ask me to remain with you through every moment. I want to do that for you. In this way, you will come to walk on the path that Jesus Christ has marked out for you. Dearest children of the world, please walk with me. I need your help. I, God, ask you now to walk with me more completely. There are many people crying out to me in pain. You must bring me to them. Please, my dear ones. Bring me to them.
