Jesus

I, Jesus, take delight in my apostles. I look into the world and see my friends, serving each other and growing in love and truly I experience delight. My friends, you will be well rewarded. The holier you become, the easier it will be for you to come to Heaven. That is my goal for you, that you become so holy on Earth that your death be a time of great peace and joy. How I anticipate the homecoming of each of my beloved servants. I plan for the day and prepare for the great rejoicing that will take place. You will be welcomed into eternity by a multitude of apostles, all of whom served before you. You will recognize your friends and family in Heaven and they will assemble to greet you. Such joyous reunions. Such well-earned rewards. My friends, your life will pass quickly, far more quickly than you can imagine. I speak to you today to remind and encourage you. I remind you that you are committed to me, to my will. Begin each day remembering that you have made a commitment to serve Heaven on that day. If you pledge your allegiance to God, you are on the side of God. If you are on the side of God, you are working against God's enemy. I want you to reject all that comes from the enemy. Be diligent about your time in silence and I will reveal anything that I wish you to reject or abandon. I draw you into my heart, further and further. There is always a need to advance. Today, I call you to make an even greater commitment to advancing in holiness. I will help you. I will make your path even more clear to you. I come today to remind you of your pledge, but also to encourage you. I look into the world at this time and there is darkness, but there is also light. That light comes from your commitment to me. The angels see your service and they rejoice. The saints see your service and they applaud. Our mother, Mary, sees your service and she is comforted. I, Jesus Christ, see your service and I experience delight. You are part of a team, my team. We are the team that brings salvation and we do that through love. In your heart I am placing love for humanity. You will experience this love individually, for each person with whom you come into contact. This is how I experience love. I love all mankind and I do this one person at a time. You must do the same. Love those around you, particularly those in your family. Treat each person with dignity and respect because if people see that you are good, they will understand that I am good. Be at peace. I am with you in everything and your service delights me.
