Jesus

My dear ones, I am with you in your struggles. How can I help you to understand that your struggles are necessary to your holiness? Perhaps you should simply trust me and view your struggles as evidence that I continue working to perfect your soul. If there were no struggle, my little apostles, there could be no possibility of advancement. This is a time to make great gains in holiness but gains are only possible with effort. I am making every effort toward you. Are you making effort to move closer to me? Ask yourself today and each day, “Where is God asking me to be holier today?” Perhaps it is charity, perhaps patience, possibly trust, maybe you should practice concentrating on your holiness and refrain from examining the work needed in others. Oh, my dear apostles, if you could only see how desirable holiness is to Heaven. If you could only see how beautiful you are when you are looking up to Heaven with an honest desire to become holier. When you become distracted, my heart sighs. And yet I am patient with you. I know that my little ones want to serve me. I know that my little ones struggle to absorb the truth about holiness. And that is why I am patient. I am patient because you are trying. Continue trying, dear apostles. Walk bravely into holiness. Be fearless in examining your condition. If you do so, I will surround you with love so that you do not become discouraged, but emboldened. You will become emboldened to strive for greater and greater heights of holiness and greater and greater heights of humility. How Heaven will rejoice as the King’s apostles relinquish their ties to the world and attach themselves more fully to Heaven’s work. Heaven’s work will always involve two goals, one, the holiness of the apostle, two the coming of the Kingdom. My apostles must concern themselves primarily with their holiness and then I, the King, can best see to the coming of God’s Kingdom. Be at peace. Rejoice. I am with you and my plan is advancing.
