Jesus

My dear children, I am with you. I watch closely as you struggle for holiness. Often, you are uncertain of your spiritual condition. You strive to serve but feel conflicted by the times in which you serve. There are some things that all humanity deals with regardless of where in history they are placed. First, there will always be a difference between the world's path and Heaven's path. These two paths, while they can run alongside each other for increments, will always separate. Ultimately, each person will have to choose. Every person, to a greater or lesser degree, will have to contend with choosing first, good over evil, and then there will come another choice and that is the choice of choosing my plan for one's life over one's own plan for their life. After that, the choices become even more studied in that the person must choose my plan in each day, in each task, and even in each moment.

You may say, dear apostle, that this is a difficult call for a person, to study their actions in each day. You may say, this is asking a lot. You are right. I, Jesus, am asking a lot of you. I ask for your full commitment and I do so without apology. Dearest apostles, if you give me your full commitment, there is no limit to what I can do. Look at your life. You have said yes to me on many days. Examine what I have done with your yes answers. Consider what I am building with the commitments of so many children of God who are willing to be directed by the Savior, their King. I am building a structure of love. I am building a structure through which many are returning. Truly, your hearts, open and filled with my love, call out to others. You provide for me a welcome to those who feel separated. If they can be taken into your heart for even a brief moment and experience me, with my love, then they will have the courage to both approach me directly and to accept me directly.

Please, do not count the sacrifices when you consider your service. Do not count the loss of worldly respect. Count only the people who are comforted and consoled. Count the repentance and healing of so many who have been restored to unity with Heaven. Count the humility that I have bestowed upon you, dear apostle, since you began to learn about true holiness. I am your King. I can give you anything. I choose to give you peace and holiness. I choose to make of you a resolute servant. Accept my will in your life and you will then be able to accept all of the graces Heaven has stored up for you.

DIRECTION FOR OUR TIMES
