Jesus

Dear apostles, I send you a spirit of gentleness. Because you are called to treat others as I treated others, you are called to be gentle with all those around you. This call to gentleness in no way diminishes the call to live in the truth. If you preach the truth as I did, gently, you will draw others to us and to unity of thought and action. In this time, when it is so important that people be brought back into the family of God, we must be ever so careful to be gentle with others in each interaction. I am Jesus. I am filled with love for each person you encounter, regardless of their condition. View each person through my love and treat them with my gentleness. My dearest apostle, in order to allow yourself to heal from any wounds you yourself suffer, you must allow me to minister to you. I am tender-hearted with your failings. Remember this and do not turn away from me when you feel you have failed. If you do not allow me to minister to you during periods of unrest, you will be vulnerable to the distortions which can be sown by the enemy. Apostles walking with me inspire hope in the world. This is the plan. But my friends must remember that apostles walking with me also inspire fear in the enemy. The enemy's fear causes him to lash out at the friends of the Returning King. Be at peace in this as it has always been this way and there is no reason for anything but confidence in my plan for each day of every life. At the same time, be prepared to do battle for your holiness as I did battle. If you remain with me, the battles will make you stronger and holier. That is my goal. Accept the gentle ministrations of your Savior in silence and you will then be an able carrier of this gentleness to others. Beloved friends, so loyal to your God, you will stand out if you are gentle and it is this that I need from you. I need you to stand out as calm and gentle representatives of the different way. The world will remember you for your gentleness if you allow me to teach you. You are not called to change the world. I am called to change the world. You are called to represent me accurately so that I have the opportunity with each person you encounter. Through your love, your kindness and your gentleness, you will create heavenly opportunities for me in the people around you. I will never miss an opportunity, I promise you. I make the best possible use of your efforts. I thank you, dear friend. Your fidelity to the Father will not be forgotten.
